Resources for you and your family
(for U.S.-based, benefits-eligible employees)

Congratulations on the new addition to your family. To help you during this important time, inside you’ll find a variety of benefits and programs available to support you and your growing family.
About your parental leave

You can take up to 16 weeks of paid parental leave, and up to an additional 10 weeks of unpaid leave, for a total of 26 weeks. Leave must be requested through Sedgwick within the first 15 calendar days of your leave start date. You can also request leave up to 30 days prior to the start of your scheduled leave.

If you have questions, call Sedgwick at 855.837.5999 or access the mySedgwick portal (mySedgwick.com/BankofAmerica).

16 paid weeks
+ 10 unpaid weeks
= 26 weeks of parental leave

You have some flexibility to take time away when it’s best for you and your family.* For example, after taking maternity leave when a baby is born, new mothers can return to work for a period and then resume their leave as long as it starts in the first 12 months after the baby arrives. New fathers and adoptive parents can take parental leave any time within the first 12 months after the baby is born or the child is placed with you for adoption. As an example, you can:

- Take eight weeks after you adopt a child
- Return to work for three weeks
- Take another eight weeks of paid leave

Your leave may run concurrently with other state or local leaves, depending on where you work. See your initial letter from Sedgwick for additional details.

*For maternity, paternity or adoption leave, you may break your leave into three segments. Each segment must be more than seven consecutive calendar days, and you must return to work for at least seven consecutive calendar days between segments. Leaves must be initiated within the first 12 months of your child’s birth or adoption date.
Once your child has arrived, make benefit elections and get financial help

Health and insurance
If you want to add your child to your benefits, including medical, dental, vision, and life and accident insurance, you’ll need to do so within 31 calendar days of the birth or adoption of your child by calling the Global HR Service Center or visiting My Benefits Resources. You can also enroll in or change your Health Flexible Spending Account (FSA), Dependent Care FSA or Health Savings Account (HSA) contribution amounts. Note: For online changes, you will need to add your child, as well as select their benefits.

Global HR Service Center: 800.556.6044, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern (excluding certain holidays)
My Benefits Resources: mybenefitsresources.bankofamerica.com (Log in using Microsoft Edge, Google Chrome or your preferred browser that is not Internet Explorer.)

💰 Don’t forget
You have 31 calendar days from the birth or adoption of your child to make changes to your benefits. If you miss the deadline, per government rules, you’ll have to wait until the next Annual Benefits Enrollment or qualified status change to make changes to your benefits. Enrollment in parental leave, adoption reimbursement or another related benefit is not in itself sufficient to allow you to add a new dependent to your coverage during the current plan year.

Update your beneficiaries
Update your beneficiaries for life insurance, accident insurance, retirement benefits and your HSA (if applicable).

Teladoc®

Connect with a U.S. board-certified doctor (including pediatricians) by phone or online video anytime you or your enrolled dependents need routine non-emergency care. The median response time is only 10 minutes, and, where available, a prescription can be sent to your pharmacy. No waiting rooms. No hassle. You can also go online to request a psychiatrist, licensed psychologist or therapist for virtual care on a wide range of mental health issues.

Available to Bank of America teammates and dependents age 13 or older enrolled in medical plans through Aetna, Anthem or UnitedHealthcare. Consults are available at no cost to those enrolled in a PPO or Consumer Directed (CD) plan, and at no cost to those in a CD High Deductible plan after their deductible is met. (If you’re enrolled in Kaiser, call the number on your Kaiser ID card for information on telemedicine.)

When you’re ready to come back to work

The resources and services listed throughout this guide are also available once you return to work.

For instructions about returning to work after your leave, refer to the Returning to work section of the applicable parental leave guide on mybenefitsresources.bankofamerica.com. (Log in using Microsoft Edge, Google Chrome or your preferred browser that is not Internet Explorer.)

Are you a nursing mom? We’re here to help.

Lactation accommodations

The bank provides reasonable break periods and a private space for nursing mothers to express milk for a minimum of one year after their child’s birth. Talk with your manager about the need to take breaks and the locations where they’ll occur. If lactation accommodation support is needed, the Medical Accommodations Support team (accommodations_mailbox@bofa.com) can assist you. You can find more resources for nursing mothers by visiting HR Connect. The bank complies with all federal, state and local lactation-accommodation laws.

Nursing during work travel

Our miscellaneous travel reimbursement benefit supports working mothers who choose to breastfeed, by covering costs associated with shipping expressed breast milk home while they’re away on approved business travel. Learn more by calling the Accounts Payable Service Center at 888.550.6433.
